A weekend training school with Greg Prince

Come and join us at Supreme Kelpie Stud on Saturday, 30 June 2012 and Sunday 1 July 2012 for a great weekend. Greg has been running these classes all over Australia for the last 20 years or so. The school is geared for dog handlers, at all levels, to work stock in a “STRESS FREE” environment.

The weekend covers Greg’s 10 Step Program. Dogs move onto each step after passing an exam. If your dog does not make it through the 10 steps the remaining steps are demonstrated for you to take home and master. Greg invented this program himself over the last 30 years. The program is thorough to avoid letting you rush through and get half a dog. Students often find step 2 the hardest – calling your dog off stock. The dog must come at all times when called, not when he is ready.

No previous experience is necessary, as Greg trains you the handler to train the dog. Each student is expected to demonstrate their dog in a supervised environment. Greg will have around 12 dogs of varying experience with him in case you are unable to complete a particular step with one of your dogs.

Please bring your dog or dogs (preferably older than 6 months), a chair, note pad (if you wish to take notes) and a water bottle. Morning and afternoon tea will be provided on both days, you will be responsible for all other meals. The course runs from 8.30am to 5.30pm each day.

Cost is $400 ($200 if under16) and numbers are limited to allow each student to gain the most from the school. If your dog has instinct and temperament you will go well ahead after attending the program.
